

its my phone, i pay for it. if someone costs me money, they should pay for it, not me. would they like to pay me for what I would charge? i deserve my privacy, something that should be held onto dearly.